Tim Martin

Tim's presentation will provide an overview of the dynamics and volatility in the international oil & gas industry that has created the conflicts underlying today's disputes. Tim will then discuss some of the historically important oil & gas cases that have established many of the major principles used in the modern arbitration world. Finally, the presentation will explain the different kinds of disputes and the different parties engaged in oil & gas arbitrations around the world.

Tim Martin was AIPN President, was twice voted AIPN Member of the Year and has received its prestigious President's and Legacy Awards for his outstanding work for the organization and the industry. Tim has over 30 years of experience in the international petroleum industry, has worked in more than 50 countries around the world and has been a senior executive in commercial, operational, financial and legal positions. Tim has extensive experience as an arbitrator, mediator, expert and counsel. He is a Fellow and Chartered Arbitrator of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and is a member of the International Arbitration Institute and the London Court of International Arbitration. He is on the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association and is on the International Panel of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution. Tim is a global faculty member at CEPMLP at the University of Dundee, Scotland and has acted as an advisor to governments and industry organizations.
